NEWS ANNOUNCEMENT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

To be held in China, Japan and the US

Presenting Company's value-add advanced specialized technology platforms and key manufacturing solutions

MIGDAL HAEMEK, Israel, July 30, 2019 – TowerJazz, the global specialty foundry leader, today announced details on its 2019 annual Technical Global Symposiums to be held in China, Japan, and the US. Global events will provide a comprehensive overview and roadmap on the Company's differentiated technical and manufacturing capabilities, enabling technology and market leadership with the right analog solutions.

The conferences will feature a keynote session by TowerJazz CEO, Mr. Russell Ellwanger, as well as Company experts showcasing TowerJazz's broad specialized technology offering optimized for diverse end-applications and markets including automotive, IoT, 5G, mobility and networking, high-end imaging and intelligent sensing.

The technical sessions will focus on the Company's customer-oriented and solutions-centric offering, addressed by its various technology platforms including RF & HPA, Power Management, CMOS Image Sensors, and Non-Imaging Sensors. The Company will also display its latest design enablement tools jointly developed with leading EDA partners, as well as its excellence-driven manufacturing capabilities at its global fabrication facilities.

This year, TGS events will be hosted on the following dates and locations:

·Shanghai, China - September 3rd, 2019 (registration is now open)

·Tokyo, Japan - September 19th, 2019 (registration is now open)

·Santa Clara, California - November 20th, 2019

TGS China will include a unique CMOS Image Sensor (CIS) workshop, providing customers with extensive coverage of the Company's broad range of advanced, state-of-the-art imaging solutions.

In addition, the Company will host a technical seminar at its headquarters office in Migdal Haemek, Israel on September 10th, 2019. The event will provide a detailed technological review highlighting developing initiatives and innovative solutions for the Company's local customer base.
